Executive Order

Mrs. Teresa C. Suit may be appointed to an appropriate position in the Government Printing Office without regard to examination requirements under the civil service rules.

Mrs. Suit is the widow of Ralph M. Suit who was employed in the Government Printing Office from October 12, 1916, to December 23, 1927. She has four small children and is without income for their support.

This order is recommended by the Public Printer. As the Civil Service Commission can properly recommend waivers only when required by the needs of the service, it does not concur.

For charity.
