Executive Order

Mrs. Gladys Evert may be appointed to an appropriate position in the classified service without regard to the civil service rules.

Mrs. Evert is the widow of Lieutenant Paul Evert, who died in flight while piloting one of the United States Army entries in the National Elimination Balloon Race. She is a graduate of Lawrence University, Appleton, Wisconsin, with a Bachelor of Arts degree. This order is issued upon the recommendation of the Acting Secretary of War that Mrs. Evert be made eligible for appointment thru executive order to an appropriate position in the classified civil service.

The Civil Service Commission submits the case without prejudice. It is unable to concur in view of the existence of an eligible register.

For patriotism.
