Executive Order

Mrs. Mary C. Duff may be appointed as clerk in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, post office without regard to the requirements of the civil service rules

Mrs. Duff is the wife of Francis Duff, who for a number of years was an efficient and faithful employee of the Philadelphia post office and while in the service sustained an injury which has totally incapacitated him for work. Mrs. Duff has passed the required examination for post office clerk but her name has not yet been reached for certification for appointment.

This order is recommended by the Postmaster General. The Civil Service Commission cannot concur, its recommendations for waivers being limited to those cases where the needs of the service cannot be met by the procedure under the rules.

For charity.
