Executive Order

Mrs. Ruth McElroy Hill may be reinstated to an appropriate position in the Post Office Department without regard to the time limit on reinstatement under the civil service rules.

Mrs. Hill resigned August 15, 1924, after more than four years' service in the Treasury Department, General Accounting Office, and the Post Office Department. This order is recommended by the Postmaster General, who states that she rendered efficient service and is exceptionally qualified for the work she performed.

The Civil Service Commission cannot concur, its recommendations for waivers being limited to those cases where the needs of the service cannot be fully met under the rules.

For charity.
