Executive Order

Mrs. Josephine Robbins may be employed in a clerical capacity under the Naval Establishment without regard to the civil service rules. Mrs. Robbins served during the World War as a yeoman (F) for more than a year and a half. She has three children dependent upon her for support and is without means or income.

This order is recommended by the Secretary of the Navy. The Civil Service Commission does not concur, as it can properly recommend waivers only when the needs of the service can not be met by the procedure under the civil service rules.
