Executive Order

Mrs. Bessie B. McCracken, widow of Sergeant Henry J. McCracken who died in Honolulu on November 5, 1925, as the result of an airplane accident while serving as staff sergeant in line of duty, may be appointed to an appropriate position in any part of the classified service without regard to the civil service rules.

The Secretary of War concurs with the Chief of the Air Corps in recommending the issuance of an Executive order to permit the appointment. The Civil Service Commission, having sole regard to the demands of the service, is unable to concur.
