Executive Order

Until the ratings have been completed of the civil service examination closing November 20, 1928, for positions of prohibition agent, the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to continue under temporary appointment those prohibition agents, inspectors, and investigators entitled to military preference (1) whose applications for such examination have been accepted by the Civil Service Commission; and (2) who have been employed with clear records for at least two years in the Prohibition Service.

For the purposes of this order, reinstatement may be made, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, of any preference employee herein described who was dropped from the Prohibition Service, without charges, subsequent to August 16, 1928.
