Amending Executive Order of September 25, 1925, establishing rules governing navigation of the Panama Canal and adjacent waters.

Amended
Superseded by
1940 C.R. 143

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the provisions of the Act of Congress approved August 21, 1916, entitled "An Act extending certain privileges of Canal employees to other officials on the Canal Zone, and authorizing the President to make rules and regulations affecting the health, sanitation, quarantine, taxation, public roads, self-propelled vehicles and police powers on the Canal Zone, and for other purposes, including provisions as to certain fees, money orders and interest deposits," I do hereby amend Rule 120 of the Executive Order of the President, dated September 25, 1925, relating to exclusion of undesirables, to read as follows:

> "Rule 120. Undesirable Persons. The following classes of persons are hereby forbidden to enter or remain upon or pass over any part of the Canal Zone, and the Governor is hereby authorized, at his discretion, to deport any such person when found in the Canal Zone: The insane or persons who have been insane within five years previous to their attempted entry into the Canal Zone, imbeciles or feeble-minded persons, epileptics, persons suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, criminals, those who have been convicted of felony, paupers or professional beggars, persons of notoriously bad character, anarchists, those whose purpose it is to incite insurrection, and any other persons whose presence, in the judgment of the Governor, would be a menace to the public health or welfare of the Canal Zone, or whose presence would tend to create public disorder or obstruct the operation or maintenance of the Canal, or who are liable to become a public charge."

This order shall take effect from and after this date.
