(b) Where to mail. You may mail certified mail at the post office, branch, or station or give it to a rural carrier. It may also be deposited in mail drops in post offices, street letter boxes, or any other receptacles for first-class mail, provided you follow specific directions in paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) How to mail. Obtain blank certified mail coupons (no charge) at your post office or from your rural mail carrier. Also obtain blank return receipt forms if needed. Following is the procedure:

(1) Enter on the receipt portion of the certified mail coupon the name and complete address of the person or firm to whom the mail is addressed.

(2) If return receipt is wanted, check block on the mailing receipt to show the fee and endorse the article on the address side near the certified mail endorsement "Return Receipt Requested" or "Return Receipt Requested Showing Address Where Delivered." See § 58.3 (b). Enter the certified mail number on the return receipt card, address it to yourself and attach it to the back of small envelopes and on front of packages and large envelopes if it will not cover the address. If you desire the return receipt to show the address where the article was delivered, there is a block at the top of the form which must be checked by you.

(3) Be sure to attach to the envelope sufficient postage stamps to pay for the certified mail fee, first-class postage, return receipt fee, or special-delivery fee.

(4) If you want a postmarked sender's receipt, attach the certified mail sticker to the address side of the article and present the article and the completed coupon to the postal employee. If given to a rural carrier, he will bring the postmarked receipt back to you.

(5) If you do not want a postmarked receipt, attach the Certified Mail sticker to the address side of the article, detach your receipt, and mail the article. Mark your receipt to show the date.

(6) If you desire to restrict delivery of certified mail to the addressee or someone named by him in writing, endorse the mail "Deliver to Addressee Only" or "Deliver to Addressee or Order."

(d) Firm mailing books. If you mail an average of three or more letters at one time, you may use mailing books. Form 3877a, which is furnished by the Postal Service without charge, or specially printed mailing bills. A series of numbers will be furnished you. The sheets of the book become the sender's receipts. If you want the firm mailing bills receipted by the Postal Service, present the books with the articles to be mailed. You must also obtain at your expense a stamp for endorsing the certified letters, or you may have your envelope overprinted with the endorsement. The endorsement must be a facsimile or proportionate enlargement of the official endorsement shown in § 58.1. Following are instructions for use of the forms:

(1) Insert the word "Certified" in the space provided at the top of the form.

(2) The mailer must endorse and number the letters. If return receipt or special-delivery services are requested, mark the letters "Return Receipt Requested," "Return Receipt Requested Showing Address Where Delivered," or "Special Delivery." Prepare and attach return receipt to the back of the envelopes with the receipt side showing.

(3) Show on the bill the number of each article and the name and address of addressee.

(4) Enter only the amount of fees paid for return receipts.

(5) Affix necessary postage to the articles.

(6) The accepting employee will count the items, receipt the bill for the total number, and return the bill to you.
