ALASKA

REVOKING IN PART EXECUTIVE ORDER OF MAY 24, 1905, WITHDRAWING CERTAIN PUBLIC LAND FOR USE OF WAR DEPARTMENT FOR MILITARY PURPOSES

By virtue of the authority vested in the President, and pursuant to Executive Order No. 9337 of April 24, 1943, it is ordered as follows:

Executive Order of May 24, 1905, withdrawing certain public land in Alaska for use of the War Department for military purposes, is hereby revoked so far as it affects the following-described public lands:

A strip of land 100 feet wide (50 feet on either side of center of telegraph line), along the United States military telegraph lines from Fort Egbert to the Canadian boundary on the south bank of the Yukon River, a distance of approximately 12 miles, containing approximately 145 acres.

This order shall not otherwise become effective to change the status of such land until 10:00 a. m. on June 16, 1948. At that time the land, which is all unsurveyed, shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of any existing withdrawals, be opened to settlement under the homestead laws only, and to that form of appropriation only by qualified veterans of World War II for whose service recognition is granted by act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747, 43 U. S. C. secs. 279–283), as amended, subject to the requirements of the homestead laws, and commencing at 10:00 a. m. on September 15, 1948, any of such lands not settled upon by veterans shall become subject to settlement and other forms of appropriation by the public generally in accordance with the appropriate laws and regulations.

Available information shows the land involved is generally level and poorly drained. The cover consists chiefly of underbrush with scattered scrub black spruce of no merchantable value.

Assistant Secretary of the Interior.
