TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 10—INSURANCE

APPLICATION AND MEDICAL EVIDENCE

1. Section 10.3424 (38 CFR, 1946 Supp.) is amended to read as follows:

§ 10.3424 Application and medical evidence. The applicant for reinstatement of National Service Life Insurance, during his lifetime and before becoming totally disabled, must submit a written application signed by him and furnish evidence of health as required in § 10.3423 at the time of application satisfactory to the Administrator of Veterans Affairs and upon such forms as the Administrator shall prescribe or otherwise as he shall require. Applicant's own statement of comparative health may be accepted as proof of insurability for the purpose of reinstatement under § 10.3423 (a), but, whenever deemed necessary in any such case by the Administrator, report of physical examination may be required. Applications for reinstatement submitted after expiration of the applicable period mentioned in § 10.3423 (a) must be accompanied by report of physical examination made in accordance with the provisions of § 10.3464: Provided, That if the insurance becomes a claim after the tender of the amount necessary to meet reinstatement requirements but before full compliance with the requirements of this section, and the applicant was in a required state of health at the date that he made the tender of the amount necessary to meet reinstatement requirements, and that there is satisfactory reason for his non-compliance, the director, underwriting service, in central office cases, and the director, insurance service, in branch office cases, may, if the applicant be dead, waive any or all requirements of this section (except payment of the necessary premiums) or, if the applicant be living, allow compliance with this section as of the date the required amount necessary to reinstate was received by the Veterans' Administration. PART 20—GUARDIANSHIP AND LEGAL ADMINISTRATION

DISCHARGE OF GUARDIAN UPON RESTORATION TO SANITY

1. Section 20.5366 (38 CFR, 1946 Supp.) is amended to read as follows:

§ 20.5366 Discharge of guardian upon restoration of sanity. After the beneficiary has recovered and is rated competent, the discharge of a guardian and the restoration of full civil rights is dependent upon State statutes. Generally, no steps should be taken to have a guardian discharged until the beneficiary has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Veterans' Administration that he has adjusted socially and industrially. When it is determined that the guardian should be discharged, he will be notified to that effect. If the guardian in due course takes no action to terminate the guardianship the chief attorney will consult with the veteran and, upon his request, may render legal services as provided in § 20.5251 (b).

2. Section 21.5620 appearing in 13 F. R. 87 should be corrected to read: "§ 20.5620."

TITLE 43—PUBLIC LANDS: INTERIOR

Chapter I—Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior

Appendix—Public Land Orders

[Public Land Order 446]

FLORIDA

REVOKING EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 942 OF SEPTEMBER 26, 1908

By virtue of the authority vested in the President and pursuant to Executive Order No. 9337 of April 24, 1943 (3 CFR, Cum. Supp.), it is ordered as follows:

Executive Order No. 942, dated September 26, 1908, reserving a small unsurveyed island in Palma Sola Bay, approximately in latitude 27°29′ North, longitude 82°40′ West, within the boundaries of T. 34 S., R. 16 E., T. M., Florida, for the purpose of establishing the Palma Sola Reservation, the designation of which was changed to the Palma Sola National Wildlife Refuge by Proclamation No. 2416 of July 25, 1940, is hereby revoked.

The island contains approximately two acres.

This order shall not otherwise become effective to change the status of the lands until 10:00 a. m. on April 9, 1948. At that time the lands shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, become subject to such application, petition, location, or selection as may be authorized by the public-land laws.

MASTIN G. WHITE,
Acting Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

FEBRUARY 6, 1948.

Chapter II—United States Maritime Commission

PART 343—FREIGHT FORWARDERS

FORWARDING OF FOREIGN RELIEF CARGOES

Pursuant to section 217 of the Merchant Marine Act of 1936, as amended, (46 U. S. C. sec. 1127; 56 Stat. 171) which provides in part:

The Commission is hereby authorized and directed, through such administrative measures, agreements with other Federal departments and agencies, contracts with individuals or private business concerns, or other arrangements, as it may deem to be necessary or appropriate in the public interest, to coordinate the functions and facilities of public and private agencies engaged in the forwarding and similar servicing of waterborne exports and import foreign commerce of the United States, for the efficient prosecution of the war, the maintenance and development of present and post-war foreign trade, and the preservation of forwarding facilities and services for the post-war restoration of foreign commerce. As used herein the term "waterborne export and import foreign commerce of the United States" shall be deemed to include export shipments from the Government of the United States to the governments of nations whose defense is deemed by the President to be vital to the defense of the United States under the authority of the act of March 11, 1941.

Other Federal departments and agencies are hereby authorized and directed to cooperate with the Commission by entering into and carrying out such agreements as may be necessary to effectuate the purposes of this section: Provided, That the Commission is authorized and directed to report to the Congress within ninety days after the enactment of this section, and every four months thereafter, the action taken hereunder and to give the names of any Federal departments or agencies or any other persons who have failed to cooperate with the Commission as herein directed: And provided further, That nothing herein shall be deemed to affect the power or jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission, nor confer upon the Maritime Commission, concurrent power or jurisdiction over any matter within the power or jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission.
